TEXT:                    1 Corinthians 12:4-27 (ESV)

<sup>4</sup> Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; <sup>5</sup> and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; <sup>6</sup> and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone. <sup>7</sup> To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good.

<sup>11</sup> All these are empowered by one and the same Spirit, who apportions to each one individually as he wills. <sup>12</sup> For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. <sup>13</sup> For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

<sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell? <sup>18</sup> But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.

<sup>20</sup> As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

<sup>25</sup> that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. <sup>26</sup> If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together. <sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

T/S:            But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose.

iii. Quote: “Radical Together”

If you and I want our lives to count for God’s purpose in the world, we need to begin with a commitment to God’s people in the church. God has called us to lock arms with one another in single-minded, death-defying obedience to one objective; the declaration of his gospel for the demonstration of his glory to all nations. This is God’s design for His people, and it is worth giving our lives to.

Our Truth-in-Love Distinctives: We are...

- 3. Growing in-Christ & living Spirit-led...
- 4. Praying for guidance & following by faith...
- 5. Dying to self & carrying our cross...
- 6. BE-ing the Church & loving one another... (truly loving one another)

- 10. Proclaiming the Gospel (no matter what) & fishing for men...
- 11. Making disciples-warriors & winning spiritual-warfare...
- 12. Loving our King & serving His kingdom!

d. Whose church & mission do YOU want?

Jesus said the Biblical Church is the "few" - the "Ekklesia-in-Koinonia" that can be found living & loving on the narrow path... Tragically, the biblical Church is flanked by the fake & false, broad-road churches that are, in reality, Carnivals on one side and Cemeteries on the other. - JDP

"as for me and my house, WE will serve the Lord!"

- Joshua 24:15

T/S: Before you answer... think long & hard...

Eternity may weigh in the balance...

Cheap grace is the preaching of forgiveness without requiring repentance, baptism without church discipline, Communion without confession... Cheap grace is grace without discipleship, grace without the cross, grace without Jesus Christ, living and incarnate.

Costly grace is the treasure hidden in the field; for the sake of which a man will go and sell all that he has. It is the pearl of great price, to buy which, the merchant will sell all his goods. It is the kingly rule of Christ, for whose sake a man will pluck out the eye which causes him to stumble; it is the call of Jesus Christ at which the disciple leaves his nets and follows him.

Costly grace is the gospel... the gift which must be asked for, the door at which a man must knock.

*Such grace is costly because it calls us to follow, and it is grace because it calls us to follow Jesus Christ. It is costly because it costs a man his life, and it is grace because it gives a man the only true life. It is costly because it condemns sin, and grace because it justifies the sinner. Above all, it is costly because it cost God the life of his Son: "you were bought at a price," and what has cost God much cannot be cheap for us.." – Dietrich Bonhoeffer

And... don't ever underestimate the power of your witness (see Miss Peggy!)

1 Thessalonians 2:8 "...we shared our very lives with you..."

Key Supportive Texts & Thoughts:

Matthew 28:18-20

18 Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

1 Corinthians 12:12-27

12 For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. 13 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and all were made to drink of one Spirit.

14 For the body does not consist of one member but of many. 15 If the foot should say, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. 16 And if the ear should say, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” that would not make it any less a part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would be the sense of hearing? If the whole body were an ear, where would be the sense of smell?

18 But as it is, God arranged the members in the body, each one of them, as he chose. 19 If all were a single member, where would the body be? 20 As it is, there are many parts, yet one body.

21 The eye cannot say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” nor again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.” 22 On the contrary, the parts of the body that seem to be weaker are indispensable, 23 and on those parts of the body that we think less honorable we bestow the greater honor, and our unpresentable parts are treated with greater modesty, 24 which our more presentable parts do not require. But God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that lacked it, 25 that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same care for one another. 26 If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together.

27 Now you are the body of Christ and individually members of it.

DisciplesPath Curriculum Flow:

A. Key Truth – Jesus sends us out as a community of disciples in order to make disciples.

B. Review – last week we took a deeper look at our mission to make disciples as individual followers of Jesus. We saw that making disciples is a command, not a suggestion. Moreover, we learned that disciple making involves going out to the world, baptizing, and teaching/equipping how to practice the foundational truths of God's Word.

C. Pray – thank God for making you part of a community within the body of Christ.

D. Introduction:

- a. Parallel a doctor's visit with a spiritual checkup...
- b. Quote: "The human body is intricately designed and amazingly complex, yet answering a few relatively simple questions can reveal a great deal of information about a person's overall health."
- c. Quote: "We know the church is healthy when disciples of Jesus work together in a corporate effort to obey Him and make more disciples."

E. Know The Story:

- a. Quote: "The concept of the church existing as the body of Christ can be found throughout the New Testament. However, the writings of the apostle Paul offer the deepest & most direct references to that idea – including both how we should understand the body and why it's important for us to do so."
- b. Scripture Text: 1 Corinthians 12:12-20, 27
  - i. Focus on the many "one" statements
  - ii. Key verses:
    - 1. v.18
    - 2. v.20
    - 3. v.27
  - iii. Quote: "As usual, Paul didn't mince words when he wrote about the Church in the above passage..."

- iv. Quote: “Why is it important for the people in this room (and listening elsewhere) to understand and apply these verses?”

F. Unpack The Story:

a. We Are the Body of Christ:

- i. 1 Corinthians 12 says “independent disciples” are an oxy-moron
- ii. Quote: “To be a disciple of Jesus is to be intricately & intimately involved in the Church... we are grafted into the body of Christ.”
- iii. 1 Cor. 12:18 = “But as it is, God has arranged each one of the parts in the body just as he wanted.”
- iv. Quote: “Jesus has promised us a place in His body. Therefore, our service in the church becomes a matter of faith more than comfort.”

b. We Work Together to Make Disciples:

- i. Quote: “We must always remember that the body of Christ wasn’t designed solely to bless the members of that body. Rather, the church exists to accomplish the will of its Head, which is Christ. And, it is Christ’s will for the Church to make disciples of ALL nations.”
(Matthew 28:18-20)
- ii. See Acts 2:41-47!!!

G. Weekly Activities:

- a. Memorize Colossians 1:17-18
- b. "He is before all things, and by Him all things hold together. He is also the Head of the body, the Church; He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that He might come to have first place in everything."

H. Contentment In The Body

- a. Being in the body is a divine grace & privilege
- b. Still... obstacles will need to be overcome... friction will come to the Church on occasion
- c. Discontentment is a challenge for/in church due:
  - i. 1 Corinthians 12:21-26 is proof
  - ii. Pride & Bitterness feed & fuel discontent. -

I. Personal Study:

- a. Find Your Place In the Body
  - i. Quote: "If you've been transformed as a disciple of Jesus Christ, then you are part of His body, the Church. Even more, you have a specific role and function as a member of that body – you've been uniquely designed & specifically placed to advance the work of the broader Church within the community of your local group & congregation."
  - ii. Know your role & function within the church...
  - iii. Learn your spiritual giftedness & calling
  - iv. How can/will you contribute to the ministry of your church family?
  - v. See Ephesians 4:11-16!

- vi. Quote: “Notice Paul’s emphasis in Ephesians 4:16 that the body is built up and remains healthy through ‘the proper working of each individual part.’ That’s YOU! Every disciple of Jesus has a share in maintaining the health & productivity of the Church. More, we have a responsibility to do our part in helping the body of Christ fulfill its mission – a responsibility that includes consequences when we neglect our duty.”
  - 1. See how Jesus drives that point home...
  - 2. See Christ’s “Parable of the Talents”

- vii. Quote: “Many people feel hesitant about pouring themselves into the church’s mission to make disciples... Some simply don’t want to give up greater control of their lives. Others aren’t willing to let go of cherished possessions or long held habits... In the end, all excuses boil down to the same thing: disobedience. Our Master has commanded us to work together as His body in order to make disciples for His kingdom. That is our mission. What you do next is your choice.”

b. Join the Body In Making Disciples

- i. Jesus came on a mission to initiate & empower the Great Commission... He accomplished His part on the cross & through His resurrection.

ii. Quote: “Jesus gave His disciples a mission as well – one that should drive us each day to expand His kingdom and bring glory to God.”

iii. See Matthew 28:18-20

1. Quote: “How has your understanding of these verses changed or deepened in recent weeks?”

2. Make disciples – it is the mission of every Christian and every church

iv. Chart your personal status & growth:

1. How confident are you in your ability to make disciples?
2. List 3 lost people you will pray for daily...
3. List 3 believers you will pray for to grow...
4. What spiritual disciplines will help you to grow in your walk with Jesus?
5. To what degree are you currently being supported, encouraged, and instructed by other disciples of Jesus?
6. How will you actively seek encouragement and support from other disciples of Jesus as you work to obey the Great Commission?

Chapter 4 – THE GENIUS OF WRONG

BUILDING THE RIGHT CHURCH DEPENDS ON USING ALL THE WRONG PEOPLE.

What we do at Brook Hills when we gather as the church, our main focus is on the church. We organize our worship environment around believers, not unbelievers.

“Why would we do that?” “If your worship environment on Sunday is not appealing to non-Christians, then how is your church going to intentionally lead unbelievers to Christ?”

“We’re going to equip our people every Sunday to lead unbelievers to Christ all week long.” Your members are going to lead them to Christ?” “That’s our plan.”

He said “once those unbelievers become believers, how are they going to grow in Christ?”

“Our people are going to be equipped to show new believers how to live as followers of Christ.”

“I want people in the church to be able to fulfill the purpose for which they were created without being dependent on gifted preachers, nice buildings, and great programs to do it for them.”

I believe in the work of God’s Spirit through God’s Word in God’s people.

The goal of the church is never for one person to be equipped and empowered to lead as many people as possible to Christ. The goal is always for all of God’s people to be equipped and empowered to lead as many people as possible to Christ.

The Spirit of God has empowered every follower of Christ to accomplish the purpose of God for the glory of God in the world. This includes the so-called wrong people; those who are the least effective, least brilliant, or least talented in the church.

Building the right church, then, is dependent on using all the wrong people.

It's commonly assumed a growing church today needs a few simple elements.

First, a good performance. Someone who can captivate the crowds. A charismatic communicator. For a bonus, we surround the speaker with quality music and arts.

Next, we need a place to hold the crowds who will come. Usually means investing millions in a facility to house the performance. The more attractive the environment, the better.

Once the crowds get there, we need something to keep them coming back. So we start programs for kids, youth, and families, for every age and stage. In order to have those programs, we need professionals to run them. That way the professionals can handle ministry for them. We don't want people trying this at home.

There it is a performance at a place filled with programs run by professionals. The problem, though, is the one p we have left out of the equation; the people of God.

PEOPLE, NOT PERFORMANCES

Growing the church was never intended to depend on creating a good performance with all the right people. Where did we get the idea that this was necessary? Certainly Scripture instructs us to gather for worship. This is nonnegotiable but not necessary in the way we usually think about it.

Imagine being in a church on the other side of the world where it is illegal for the church even to exist.

Not one of them has come because a great communicator has been scheduled to speak. Not one is present because a cool band is scheduled to play. All are there simply because they desire to gather with the people of God, and they are willing to risk their lives to be together.

But what if the church itself – the people of God gathered in one place – is intended to be the attraction? This is enough for our brothers and sisters around the world.

But is it enough for us?

I have more questions than I have answers on this issue, and I am grateful for leaders in our worship ministry who are willing to ask the questions with me.

We want to focus on ways we can cultivate the best people: a people who love to pray together, fast together, confess sin together, sing together, and study together; a people who depend more on the Word than on the one who speaks it; people gripped in music more by the content of the song than by the singer; people who define worship less by performance and more by commitment. A humble people who gather week after week simply to behold the glory of God as they surrender their lives to him. When the church is fundamentally a gathering of committed people, the place where the church gathers hardly matters.

Everything is on the table, and the Lord will lead us in what is best. I am convinced that large buildings are the best or only way to use God's resources.

Nothing in the New Testament says we should construct church buildings. So why is the first thing we think, We need to spend masses of our resources on a building? Why would we spend an inordinate amount of our resources on something that is never prescribed or even encouraged in the New Testament? Why would we not instead use those resources on that which is explicitly promoted in the New Testament, such as sharing the gospel with the lost or helping the poor in the church? Seven hundred million people around the world live in slums. Many of them are our brothers and sisters in Christ. Should we really be prioritizing bigger buildings for ourselves?

This is the beauty of New Testament Christianity. We definitely do not have to construct buildings as houses of worship. In the words of Stephen before he was martyred by the Sanhedrin, "The Most High does not live in houses made by men."

With Jesus' death on the cross, the way had been opened for people to dwell in the presence of God in any place. No building was necessary. As a result, they no longer needed to focus on a building as a house of worship.

What would the house of worship be, then? You guessed it: people. Astounding reality of New Testament religion: we as Christians are the house of worship.

So let's gather wherever we can in any facilities we can find. Many of our brothers and sisters around the world simple meet outside. Consider not spending such a large portion of our resources on building places when the priority of the New Testament is decidedly on building people.

The challenge, we need our places to sustain our programs. *This is when we begin to realize that redefining place in ministry leads to rethinking the importance of programs in ministry.

How would your church make disciples completely separate for a church building?

Why not make our homes the place of ministry instead of the church building? Why not invite people from our neighborhoods, not to go to a church building with us, but to come across the street and into our homes with us? Home is where we could show the gospel to their children while we also shared life with them.

People discover that God has built into our everyday lives opportunities and platforms to spread the gospel. People realize that we are not dependent on well-crafted programs at designated places to accomplish the mission God has created us for as his people.

Imagine what could happen if men ad women seeing that the most effective avenues for ministry are found not in programs created for them but amid the people who surround them where they live. The last thing leaders should do is pull away from those avenues in order to participate in our activities.

We woke up and said to ourselves, “Why are we trying to organize how and where and when our people minister? God has already given them opportunities for ministry where they live and work and play.” *So we decided to stop planning, creating, and managing outreach programs and to start unleashing people to maximize the ministry opportunities God had already planned and created for them.

From that point the impact of our church in the community changed radically. Now our people are busy leading Bible studies in their workplaces and neighborhoods, helping addicts in rehabilitation centers, supply food in homeless shelters, loving orphans in learning centers, caring for widows in retirement homes, providing hospice care for the elderly, training men and women in job skills, tutoring men and women in reading, helping patients in AIDS clinics, teaching English to internationals, and serving in a variety of other ways. Our leadership team understands that it’s good when people are so involved in ministry where they live that they don’t have time to participate in the programs we create.

If you are a leader in the church, think about the individuals in your care. Consider how God has written a different story in each of their lives. You have been called by God to serve them in the accomplishment of God’s purpose for their lives. You want to equip them, train them, support them, and set them free to use everything God has given them to make his glory known in ways you could never design or imagine.

If you are a member of the church, start dreaming and strategizing Consider where God has placed you, who God has put around you, and how God desires to use you for his glory where you live and work. (Illustrate – If you are single, how can you make the most of your singleness for ministry? If you are married, how can you serve together with your spouse in your community? If you have kids, how can you make your home a ministry to children in your neighborhood? If you work outside the home, how can you share Christ in your workplace? Be careful not to let programs in the church keep you from engaging people in the world with the gospel.) Make the most of the opportunities for ministry that God has built into your life.

Imagine the spread of the gospel for the glory of God if every follower of Christ were involved in ministry. Who can fathom the potential of the church when we stop programming ministry for people and start propelling people into ministry?

We have a tendency to overlook God’s plan for people when we organize churches around professionals. We single out people who seem especially gifted, and we craft the community of faith around them. *But the ministry of making disciples was not intended for professionals alone; it was intended for the whole people of God.

All men and women who have placed their faith in Christ have the Spirit in them so they might be witnesses for Christ. Read Acts 2. Realize the giving of the Spirit was never to be a special anointing on a select few. This is about a supernatural anointing on every single one of God’s people.

Let us not be so unwise as to bank the spread of the gospel on a certain person at a certain place when all week long the Spirit of God is living in every single man and woman of God, empowering each of us to advance the kingdom of God for his glory.

You might be wondering, is there a place for paid leaders – that is professionals – in the church?

Absolutely! When we look in the New Testament, we clearly see a warrant, even a command, to provide financially for certain teachers and leaders in the church.

What, then is the responsibility of such leaders in the church? Paul answers this question in Ephesians 4. God has given leaders to the church to equip God’s people for ministry and “prepare God’s people for works of service.” The church has been entrusted by God with stewards of God’s Word to equip God’s people to be servants with God’s Word. This goes to the essence of being radical together, it changes everything about how we view leaders in the church.

There is clearly no way a pastor can minister to all the needs in church, much less in our city. Some might say “that’s what the rest of the church staff is for.” If we want to multiply the gospel from our faith family to all the families of the earth, it will require not just a pastor or church staff but the entire body of Christ built up in love “as each part does its work.”

What this means, is that church leaders are intended by God not to plan events but to equip people. Leaders do not exist to provide services; they exist to serve people. Realizing this, leaders in our faith family have made a concentrated effort to take resources away from organizing ministry for people and to invest them more in mobilizing people for ministry.

Passion to tell people about Christ translates into a commitment to train people in the church. When he leads someone to Christ, Dominic takes personal responsibility for helping that person grow in Christ. His goal is for that person to become a leader in the church and then eventually to leave and plant another church somewhere else.

Dominic's church has now planted more than sixty other churches in his country, with nearly every one of the pastors trained by Dominic. His life and leadership are a picture of what it means, not to organize ministry for people, but to mobilize people for ministry.

Isn't this the model of Jesus? He spent more time with twelve men than with everyone else put together. In John 17 he recounts his ministry before going to the cross. He doesn't mention the multitudes, they were not his primary focus. Instead, forty times Jesus speaks to and about the men in who he had invested his life. They were his focus.

When he came to his ascension, Jesus had not buildings or programs to point to and no crowds to boast of. Just 120 unschooled, ordinary people were gathered – a small group with a small brand of leaders.

And he had given them one command as their commission: make disciples. Don't sit in a classroom; share your lives. Don't build extravagant places; build extraordinary people. Make disciples who will make disciples who will make disciples and together multiply this gospel to all peoples. This simple command was to drive the church. This is the simple command that is to drive each of our lives.

I don't want this command to be treated as optional in my life or in anyone else's life in the church I pastor. Personally, I have an intentional disciple-making plan that involves sharing life with and multiplying the gospel through my family, a small group of men within our church and church planters we are sending out from our church. If I am not careful, disciple making fades into the background. As a result, I want to act intentionally, for if I forsake the priority of people, then I will miss the purpose of God.

We help all new members in our church to outline their plans for how they will be involved in making disciples of all nations. The key for all of us is an intense desire and intentional effort to make every one of our lives count for the multiplication of the gospel in the world.

You may feel like you are not gifted enough, or qualified enough to engage in effective ministry. This is simply not true. *You have the Word of God before you, the Spirit of God in you, and the command of God to you: make disciples of all nations.

A house church leader in Asia persecution stripped his church of its resources. “We soon found we were much stronger because our faith in God was purer.” “We didn't have any opportunity to love the ‘things’ of God, so we just learned to love God! We had no plans or programs to keep running, so we just sought the face of Jesus!... We don't believe the world needs another single church building. They need Jesus and they need to worship and grow in God's grace with other believers...according to the pattern of the first church in the New Testament.” “When we finally reach the end of all our useless programs and give up in desperation, Jesus will always be there to show us a better way—his way.”

We will never have enough resources, staff, buildings, events, or activities to reach all the people in our community, much less all the peoples in the world.

But we will always have enough people. Even if they seem like the wrong people.

If eleven disciples on a mountain in Galilee were enough to launch the gospel to the ends of the earth ten a church with a handful of members can spread the gospel in and beyond a community, regardless of the amount of material resources it has.

What if each of us were actually making disciples who were making disciples? Is it too idealistic to dream? Is that realistic? You bet it is. In fact, it's guaranteed.

CONTEXT:

Acts 2:36-47

36Let all the house of Israel therefore know for certain that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified.” 37Now when they heard this they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, “Brothers, what shall we do?” 38And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to himself.”

40And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked/wicked generation.”

41So those who received his word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

2 Corinthians 5:14-21

The Ministry of Reconciliation

14For the love of Christ controls us, because we have concluded this: that one has died for all, therefore all have died; 15and he died for all, that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

16From now on, therefore, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we once regarded Christ according to the flesh, we regard him thus no longer. 17Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. 18All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; 19that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. 20Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. 21For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

3 I thank my God in all my remembrance of you, 4 always in every prayer of mine for you all making my prayer with joy, 5 because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. 6 And I am sure of this, that he who began a good work in you will bring it to completion at the day of Jesus Christ. 7 It is right for me to feel this way about you all, because I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel. 8 For God is my witness, how I yearn for you all with the affection of Christ Jesus. 9 And it is my prayer that your love may abound more and more, with knowledge and all discernment, 10 so that you may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless for the day of Christ, 11 filled with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

(Don't just remember what Christ did...

43And awe came upon every soul, and many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. 44And all who believed were together (ep-pee) and had all things in common. 45And they were selling their possessions and belongings and distributing the proceeds to all, as any had need.

T/S:

If someone is willing to dismember and divide the baby – they neither love the baby, nor the baby's Father!

*“Unleashing radical people into the world requires the gospel as our foundation and our motivation.
You and I must embrace a gospel that both saves us from work and saves us to work... We live sacrificially, not because we feel guilty, but because* we have been loved greatly... and now we find satisfaction in sacrificial love for others.” – D. Platt

Friends and Family,

I wrote this letter about 11 days ago as a final update about baby Elijah but didn't have the stomach to send it until now...

In Acts 26 as the Apostle Paul is standing before King Agrippa as a prisoner and arguing his case for the gospel he declares, "I would to God that not only you but also all who hear me this day might become such as I am—except for these chains." The hope of reconciliation with God was so real to him that he was able to look at a king while he himself was in chains and say, "I wish you were like me; I wish you had what I have."

Two days ago, we buried our second son, Elijah. He was born on June 21st and he died on June 27th at 4:05pm...

We have grieved much from the first day that we found out about our son's disorder. But, we have not grieved like the world grieves. Our grief has not been a black, hopeless grief. No, as our pastor Cj would say "we have steel in our hearts", we have the steel of the gospel. By the power of the Holy Spirit we have perfect faith in that Second Person of the Trinity who hung hopelessly on the cross. That Good Shepherd. His Father placed all of our sins on his own Son so that we might never taste the bitterness of death eternal, so that we might be reconciled to this great God. And we have known the presence of God more deeply as a result of this bitter season.

When God sees fit to take away one's child, it feels like he has taken out vital organs from your chest and your gut. But then he comes, he himself comes, and he comforts you. It is difficult to explain the deep and abiding comfort of God's own presence in your life. Sometimes he feels so near that it feels physical, it is so real. I don't know what to call that. Is it mystical? I don't know, but it is joy unspeakable. When God takes your child, he takes part of you. But when God takes part of you, that part of you is in heaven with him. There is nothing like close proximity to Christ. As Samuel Rutherford used to say, God gives crosses to bear but he placed the heaviest part of the cross on his own son. In the same way that a Father acts like he needs his little son's help to carry something heavy, and his son thinks he is doing the heavy lifting by simply putting his hand under it - we feel like Christ has given us a cross to bear but in reality he has already borne it.

*At other times he comforts through his Body...

(Remember: Our WORSHIP defines our Fellowship!)
which is the Church. In our day of individualism many are going without any real community. And when difficulty comes, they have no choice but to depend on the state, or upon professionals, or they just grit their teeth and try to get through it. The problem is, they don't really get through it because a secular society has nothing of hope to offer with regards to eternity and death. Sure, it steals poetic portions from Christianity and tries to sugarcoat them for society. But death is rancid and it can't be sugar coated. The only way to undue it is to reverse it, and Christ makes all things new. This is the message of the Church. For the Christian, in the midst of death, he has the privilege of being caught by the arms of Christ, he has the privilege of being caught by the Church...

...we have known an abundance of comforters. And I, I am jealous for others to know this comfort that we have experienced. I wish to God that you might become such as I am—except for these chains. Oh, how I wish that all could know the love of Christ and the sweetness that is his body. But the world is full of places, peoples, and villages who know nothing of Christ. The name of Jesus is not on the lips of parents as their children die, and as war rapes the country, there is no church to comfort. We feel that we cannot sit still with this comfort, it makes us restless for the nations. It was not meant to lull us to sleep, but rather it is meant to launch us into a dying world.

Our dear friends and family. We have no words to express our overwhelming gratefulness! Thank you for the way that you have loved us. Thank you for the way that you have served us, given to us, cried with us, laughed with us, visited us, sung with us, read the Bible to us, and prayed for us. You have loved us well! You have not left us wanting! I wish that you could experience all that we have experienced, all but these chains!
